ABOUT US

Louise Viljoen, founder of Ouma Swesie se Spens, based in Darling in the Western Cape, discovered Garlic as an amazing vegetable, and became the backbone of the business.

Her passion for food, came from her mother who, being in the catering industry, shared many memorable moments with her during her childhood.

“The idea of the Garlic products was created around a weekend with my children who are also involved in the food industry, and after some research in the market, we decided to give it a go, after sending our raw garlic to the local market for a couple of years,” Louise said.

Her greatest desire is to create delicious products, beautiful in display, which not only brings joy and flavour to even the most critic, to fall in love with garlic, forth in its taste, but rather, captures the health benefits it presents.

She aims to breathe life into food with her infused garlic range of products which can be used in all forms of cooking, be it a snack in giving customers the best out of every bite, or even sharing these amazing products with other food and garlic lovers, just like me!

To discover that garlic is your friend and not your enemy.

BEST SELLERS

Over the years Black Garlic has grown popular amongst many households and chefs around the world. The rich taste and softness of the Black Garlic brings unique flavours to meals and salads.

The Garlic Snack, Chunky Olive Mayo and Tangy Jalapeno Mustard brings the family together celebrating special moments over a charcuterie board and wine.

SHIPPING

Ouma Swesie se Spens uses several courier companies within South Africa. We strive to get your orders to you as quickly as possible. If you have a preferred courier company please provide on your order form the courier details.

A courier (Courier Guy) quote can be arranged via Ouma Swesie Se Spens which will be added to your main invoice once confirmed.

Ouma Swesie se Spens parcels are packed with the utmost of care, and after parcels is handed over to the Courier Company of your choice, and leave our premises, it is no longer the responsibility of us for any breakage or damage of the parcels. Any damages or breakage will be between the Courier Company and the Client.

Some of our suppliers are smaller producers who run small production lines or work on a 'made to order' basis, so there could be a lead time for certain products. We will always try our best to indicate this on the product page where relevant.

Please allow for up to 7 working days for delivery depending on product availability and on your location.

By default, we dispatch orders when all products in a particular order are ready for dispatch (i.e. when those with lead times are also ready).

All packages must be signed for when delivered – please ensure that when making your purchase, you provide an address where there will be somebody to sign between working hours. If you provide your cellphone number and email address when ordering, you will be kept up to date via delivery tracking.
